Selected Credits:

SERIES

“Lost” – NBC

Six contestants broken into three pairs who are dropped in a secret location somewhere in the world and made to race back to the Statue of Liberty.

“America’s Most Wanted” – FOX

TV show hosted by John Walsh centered on capturing fugitives of the law and wanted criminals.

“A Current Affair” – FOX

On March 21, 2005, the series was revived after a nine-year hiatus. Former Atlanta Falcons defensive end and lawyer Tim Green hosted the new edition. In resurrecting the show, Fox gave the show a more serious tone by covering more news and crime, rather than entertainment-oriented stories. As with the original incarnation, overt politicizing was left out of the show.

DOCUMENTARIES

“They Looked Away”

This controversial documentary takes a unique look at the atrocities that occurred in the Second World War. Posing a fundamental question that has been overlooked for decades, TV journalist Mike Wallace narrates and poses even more questions.

“The Making of Rashi”

A documentary all about the making of the animated TV film Rashi.

“Alois Brunner: The Last Nazi”

A documentary about finding Alois Brunner a Nazi who had been in hiding for many years.

ANIMATION

“Rashi – A Light After The Dark Ages”

A one-hour animated historical drama, set in 11th century France. It is about Rashi, a Medieval Rabbi and scholar who lived just before the Crusades reign of terror. Besides being history's most published biblical commentator, Rashi is a gentle man of exemplary character whose decisions of law and personal counsel have enormous impact on the people around him, the generations that follow him, and the Jewish world.

EDITOR AUDIO AND VIDEO

“Rambam - The Story of Maimonides”

Exquisitely illustrated/animated dramatic film
Rambam was born in Cordova, Spain, early in the 12th century. Rambam was a holistic healer of body and soul. In an age of ignorance, he was a shining light of compassion and commitment towards his fellow human beings.
